Crown

A crown (Latin corona, the wreath'; Greek κορώνα, 'wreath', 'crown') is a precious, mostly made of gold and precious stones, predominantly of the Christian-Occident ruler; it expresses its power and dignity(?) as well as symbol for being ignorant, normally if one would sell the crown, he would have money to save many kids in the 3rd world. See also m40 Card. Frequently used in advertising, most often adapts / compensates low self-esteem, that is often a result if a father bosses around the kids to compensate his own low self-esteem that he maybe has from his father or boss or shrink.

laural wreath

S3

<https://0x8.ch/HackersCardgame5>

Inventor: XXXXX

Year: ~????
A laurel wreath is a wreath made of branches and leaves of the laurel (latin laurus). The laurel wreath is a symbol and an insignia for a special honor or distinction, for a victory (eg. for killing sheep or even innocent children) or a special success. So to say the special super-duper superman hero To compensate low selfesteem (object fixation) with this once-received laurel wreath. About as intelligent as using always the one and the same One-Time-Pad.

fool's cap

S2

<https://0x8.ch/HackersCardgame5>

Year: ~????
In the Middle Ages a fool or a Tor (german: töricht = foolish) was the person, who entertained the royal household and was dressed mostly strange but funny. The term "fool" also refers to persons who are very immature, stupid, clumsy, biased, prejudiced, ignorant. I guess "ignorant" was inserted later. The fool is normally not ignorant and if the king has a black heart it would be even dangerous to tell him what many others think directly in his face. Kings often do not want to look in the mirror because they know normally that they are fat, hairy and ignorant. The fool tries to show the king his own stupidity without being killed (jester's licence) by the king (= Satan)
