fool's cap

Inventor: ?????

In the Middle Ages a fool or a Tor (german: töricht = foolish) was the person, who entertained the royal household and was dressed mostly strange but funny. The term "fool" also refers to persons who are very immature, stupid, clumsy, biased, prejudiced, ignorant. I guess "ignorant" was inserted later. The fool is normally not ignorant and if the king has a black heart it would be even dangerous to tell him what many others think directly in his  face.

Kings often do not want to look in the mirror because they know normally that they are fat, hairy and ignorant. The fool tries to show the king his own stupidity without being killed (jesters licence) by the king (= Satan)

In Economy these are often trend-setters that make their followers buy things they don't really need. They use the an satans global marketing infrastructure that unfortunately also kills innocent kids in the 3rd world but als eg. in switzerland a you see on card m46, Boeing in your circle of equal aged people is normally much more satisfying but the infrastructure tries to split them with eg. sk1 & b1, c06, c07, m37 -> m46 -> dt1... Maybe useful bad example or as carpet, (note, hopefully this picture represents a faux fur lion, so no animal had to die). The "master" lion seems to create other lions as scapegoats but also to make them defend him and his Hitler-Mental-Operating-System

The laurel wreath is a symbol and an insignia for a special honor or distinction, for a victory (eg. for killing sheep or even innocent children) or a special success. So to say the special super-duper superhero To compensate low self-esteem (object fixation) with this once-received laurel wreath. See also m40 Card. Frequently used in advertising, most often adapts / compensates low self-esteem, that is often a result if a father bosses around the kids to compensate his own low self-esteem that he maybe has from his father or boss or shrink.
